

Members of the South Carolina State House and Senate to Address the Business Community at the Greenville Chamber's Annual Legislative Breakfast

Press Release – December 1, 2011

Media Contact: Marion Mann

864-239-3729, mmann@greenvillechamber.org

(Greenville, SC) The Greenville Chamber will host its annual Legislative Breakfast featuring the Greenville County Legislative Delegation on Thursday, December 8, 2011 at the Westin Poinsett Hotel in Greenville.

The Greenville Chamber's annual Legislative Breakfast provides the Upstate business community an opportunity to express ideas and suggestions to the Greenville County Legislative Delegation and to thank them for their service to the community. It also provides the opportunity to conduct a general discussion on key issues coming before the South Carolina General Assembly in the upcoming year that may impact businesses.

Members of the South Carolina State House and Senate will provide a preview of what to expect during next year's legislative session. The delegation will also take questions during a question and answer session.

The presenting sponsor for this event is AT&T. McNair Law Firm Environmental Regulatory Practice is a silver sponsor. Registration will begin at 7:30 am and the program will start at 8:00 am. Cost to attend is $25 for Greenville Chamber Members and $40 for non-members. The Westin Poinsett Hotel is located at 120 S. Main Street, Greenville, SC 29601. Registration for this event is at www.GreenvilleChamber.org

About the Greenville Chamber

The Greenville Chamber is the largest business organization in the Upstate. The Chamber's vision is to build one of the premier business communities in the world by: leading through collaboration, building community prosperity, being the voice of business and enhancing quality of life. For more information, visit www.greenvillechamber.org or call 864-242-1050.

###