LUANNE RUNGE APPOINTED GREENVILLE CHAMBER CHAIR-ELECT

(Greenville, SC) Greenville Chamber of Commerce 2011 Chairman Sam Konduros announced today the election of Luanne Runge, a shareholder in the law firm Gallivan White & Boyd, P.A., as 2012 Chair-elect of the Greenville Chamber by the organization's Board of Directors. She will serve as Chair in 2013 following Mike Riordan, President of Greenville Hospital System, who will follow Konduros and serve as the Chamber's Chair in 2012.

Ms. Runge has had a progressive leadership role in the Chamber, serving as Chair of Leadership Greenville in 2004, Vice-chair of Education & Workforce in 2006, four years as the Chamber's General Counsel (2007-2010) and currently as Vice-chair of Organization Excellence. She was honored for her leadership with the Chairman's Award in 2006 at the Chamber's 118th Annual Meeting.

"Luanne is uniquely prepared and equipped to effectively serve in the Chamber's highest leadership position", said Konduros of SK Strategies. "She possesses in-depth knowledge about our community and the Chamber, and will leverage that with her proven leadership capabilities to help move Greenville forward," he added.

About Luanne Runge

With over 19 years of litigation and trial experience, Ms. Runge practices in the areas of business law, professional liability and healthcare in both state and federal courts. In addition, she leads the Business and Commercial Practice Group for Gallivan, White, & Boyd, P.A., a litigation and business law firm comprised of 50 attorneys with offices in Greenville, Columbia and Charlotte. Ms. Runge is a member of the International Association of Defense Counsel, American Health Lawyers Association, the South Carolina Defense Trial Attorneys Association and is a Liberty Fellow, Class of 2009. She received her undergraduate degree, cum laude, and her law degree from Wake Forest University. Following graduation from law school, Ms. Runge served as a law clerk to the Honorable C. Victor Pyle, Jr. She is married with two children.
